To Whom It May Concern

We have had the pleasure of working with GreenCab on several of our events and over the years have developed a great professional relationship based on their reliability and dedication to always deliver a commendable service.

Particularly in Johannesburg they assisted us with our IMVC Congress at Sun City from 2 – 8 August 2014. The congress lasted a full week, with delegates arriving and departing on different days. Our delegates were travelling from local and international destinations alike and the GreenCab provided a very well managed airport transfer service to them. Their online booking system is simple and efficient, allowing delegates to make their own arrangements directly.

I trust you will find GreenCab to be an asset to any event.

Kind Regards
