Dear Amiene and Zama,

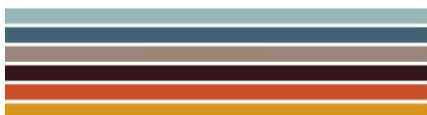

Now that we are winding down from our Symposium, I just wanted to write and thank you both - and Jetro - for playing such a pivotal and successful role in our event. All transport requirements for the entire 3-day Symposium were achieved brilliantly and you managed to transfer all our guests to where they needed to be – and back to their hotels again – with great calm, efficiency and style! Even on Tuesday, when you were operating under very difficult conditions with the road closures happening for the State of the Nation address, our guests arrived at the evening venue happy and relaxed!

We are proud to be associated with The Green Cab and if I pluck up the courage to organise another event of this nature, I will definitely use The Green Cab again!

With renewed thanks and warm best wishes,

Susan Small
